

Name _____

Instructions: Charly is an example of a “dynamic” character—she changes over time. Use your book to identify traits that describe Charly and write these in the left column. Find examples, phrases, or keywords in the book that support these traits and write these in the right column.

Traits	Clues

Name _____

Instructions: Write a vocabulary word in each Word Box. Write a definition, a synonym, and an antonym for each word in the appropriate boxes. Then use each word in a sentence.

Synonym	Word Box	Antonym
Definition
Sentence

LET A SMILEY FACE BE YOUR UMBRELLA • LEVEL S • 2

Synonym	Word Box	Antonym
Definition
Sentence

SKILL: VOCABULARY

Name _____

Instructions: Read the sentences below and decide if they contain dashes or hyphens. Then write dash or hyphen in the appropriate column. If the sentence includes a dash, explain how the dash is used in the sentence.

Sentence	Dash or Hyphen?	Explanation
I wasn't totally responsible—a bunch of wild animals messed up the house.
I didn't really care where the animals came from—they destroyed it.
I thought the cat did more of a Can-Can on Ethan's head.
I accepted the nice words about the garden from Ethan—no longer my number one enemy.
Then I saw the judges' eyes getting all squinty—they were trying to see the face in the garden.
I silenced Ethan's pack of laughing hyenas with one squinty-eyed look.		