Instructions: Write quotation marks and commas where they are needed.

They've found gold yelled my father. There's lots of it just lying on the ground.
Pack up the kids and our belongings. We are going West!

This began our long, slow trip to California. It took many weeks of riding in a covered wagon, or walking near the wagon, before we got to the mountains of gold. When we arrived, there were many changes from home that surprised us.

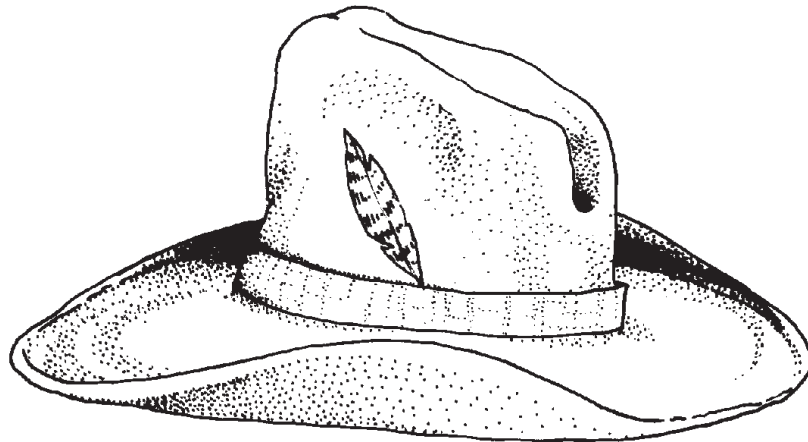

I want to buy coffee, sugar, eggs and some bacon said my Mother to the storekeeper.

That will be 50 cents an egg said the storekeeper.

What did you say? asked my Mother.

An egg costs 50 cents repeated the storekeeper. Your sugar is $1.50 for a pound. Your coffee is $1.00 for a pound, and your bacon is 1 cent a pound.

My mother bought what she could afford and told my father You'd better find lots of gold and find it fast.
