

Name _____

Instructions: Write what happened in the book in the order in which it happened.

Name _____

Instructions: Read the complex sentences. Underline the independent clause and circle the dependent clause in each. Then, write three original complex sentences.

- ① He seems unperturbed, as if he knows what will happen.
- ② After days of trudging silently through the nearly pitch-black forest and avoiding mutated cephaloids, this beacon of beauty and civilization is a wonder to behold.
- ③ Even as we watch from the underbrush at the edge of the trees, the building changes.
- ④ An earthy smell permeates everything, reminding me of a cave.
- ⑤ Something like me requires an incredible amount of energy, not only to cross over but also to maintain my existence.

MY SENTENCES

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Name _____

Instructions: Add the suffix -ly to each word. Then, choose the correct word from the word bank to complete each sentence. At the bottom of the page, add the suffix -ly to each word and use it in a complete sentence.

absolute _____ incredible _____

awful _____ continue _____ sudden _____ seeming _____

- ① Towers stretched toward the atmosphere, _____ supported by nothing more than tendrils of stone.
- ② Seth and Uncle Jasper repeated this argument _____
during our trek, and hearing it again sets my teeth on edge.
- ③ I take a deep breath, then another one, focusing my mind on _____ nothing.
- ④ "You're _____ brave," the cat hisses in a voice
I recognize but I can't place, "or _____ stupid."
- ⑤ _____, an opening appears on the wall and becomes a large window.

eventual: _____

entire: _____