Instructions: Read each sentence and underline the present-tense verb(s). Then, rewrite the sentence, changing the present-tense verb(s) to either past or future tense. Finally, write two sentences about Robinson Crusoe using different verb tenses. Underline the verbs and identify their tenses.

- ① Robinson Crusoe walks up and down the beach and reviews his chances for survival.

- ② He climbs a tree for a safe place to rest and carves a stick for defense.

- ③ Crusoe wakes up, notices his old ship dashed against a rock close to shore, and swims out for scavenging.

- ④ With his new supplies, Robinson Crusoe decides he needs a permanent place to live and climbs a hill to survey his surroundings.

- ⑤ Another storm eventually hits the island; Crusoe is safe in his tent, but the storm washes away the ship.

- ⑥ Soon after, Crusoe finds a rising hill with a worn hollow place and flat land in front.

- ⑦ He builds a fence around this spot, and he makes the stakes tall and pointed.

- ⑧ Now, Robinson Crusoe sleeps securely at night and has a safe place to work during the day.
