

Name _____

Instructions: Identify and write the main idea and most important details from each of the four sections of the book. Remember, the main idea of the introduction is the main idea for the entire book. Use the information recorded to write a summary in the Summary box.

Introduction	Ancient Cities	Modern Cities	Future Underground Cities
Summary

Name _____

Instructions: After you have read each section in the book, discuss and record the main idea for that section in the first column. Then, write the supporting details in the second column. Underline the most important details for each section.

Ancient Cities
Main Idea	Details

Modern Cities
Main Idea	Details

Underground Cities
Main Idea	Details

Name _____

Instructions: Choose the verb from the parentheses that agrees with the subject and write the word on the line.

- ① People around the world _____ lived in underground cities.
(has, have)
- ② Residents _____ shelter or more living space in their subterranean homes.
(seeks, seek)
- ③ Julie Knight _____ in an underground home in Coober Pedy.
(lives, live)
- ④ She is happy with her home because she _____ the cool
rooms and soundproof walls.
(likes, like)
- ⑤ Archaeologists _____ an ancient underground city in Turkey called Derinkuyu.
(discovers, discover)
- ⑥ SubTropolis in Kansas City _____ as an underground
business complex.
(serves, serve)
- ⑦ The businesses _____ less electricity than ones above ground.
(uses, use)
- ⑧ In the City of Caves, tourists _____ Drury Hill and other preserved caves.
(visits, visit)
- ⑨ A miner _____ statues and chapels in the Polish salt mine near Wieliczka.
(carves, carve)
- ⑩ People _____ to build underground for the benefits of privacy, low costs, and easier maintenance.
(continues, continue)