

Name _____

Instructions: In the first row, write what you already know about oil spills. In the second row, write what you would like to learn about them. After you finish reading, fill in the third row with information you learned from reading the book and the fourth row with what you still want to know.

K: What I Know
W: What I Want to Know
L: What I Learned
S: What I Still Want to Know

Name _____

Instructions: Use the book to identify cause-and-effect relationships.

Cause	Effect

OIL: A MESSY RESOURCE • LEVEL L • 2

SKILL: CAUSE AND EFFECT

Name _____

Instructions: Divide each word into syllables. Use slash marks to divide each syllable.

drilling

water

become animals

tanker

something under important

Image provided by BP via USCG/© 2009 Ken Childress Photography