

Name _____

 Instructions: In the first row, write what you already know about the end of the Civil War. In the second row, write what you would like to learn. After you finish reading, fill in the third row with information you learned from reading the book and the fourth row with what you still want to know.

K: What I Know

W: What I Want to Know

L: What I Learned

S: What I Still Want to Know

Name _____

 Instructions: Write cause-and-effect relationships in the correct boxes below.

»Cause«	»Effect«
»Cause«	»Effect«
»Cause«	»Effect«

1865: The End of the Civil War • Level Z1 • 2

Skill: Cause and Effect

Name _____

 Instructions: Choose an introductory word from the box to begin each sentence. Use each word only once. Then, place commas after each introductory word in the sentences below.

Suddenly

Finally

Certainly

Furthermore

Initially

Unfortunately

Afterward

Somehow

- ① _____ President Lincoln won the 1864 election.
- ② _____ there was clear direction for Union troops.
- ③ _____ many soldiers lost their lives in the brutal battles.
- ④ _____ the Civil War changed the South forever.
- ⑤ _____ there was no other choice but to surrender.
- ⑥ _____ Lincoln freed all of the slaves in the United States.
- ⑦ _____ the country was at peace.
- ⑧ _____ the war separated the nation.

Name _____

 Instructions: To the left of each sentence, write S for simile or M for metaphor. Then, on the lines beneath the sentence, write the two things being compared in the simile or metaphor. Finally, at the bottom of the page, create one simile and one metaphor about the Civil War.

____ ① Lee was as defeated as a deflated balloon.

____ ② The cotton was a white cloud.

____ ③ Slaves yearned for freedom like a plant craving the sun.

____ ④ Lincoln's 1864 reelection was a firecracker going off.

____ ⑤ Blood stained the battlefields like seeds on a strawberry.

____ ⑥ The Union held onto the idea of one nation with the claws of a tiger.

____ ⑦ Lincoln's victory was a beacon of hope to slaves.

____ ⑧ Civil rights are as valuable as gold.

Simile:

Metaphor:
