

Name _____

Instructions: Write the major characters and the setting in the top boxes. Write the mystery that Stanley wanted to solve. List the clues he had to solve it. Fill in the solution of this mystery. Answer the last two questions. Is this another mystery to be solved?

Characters	Setting: Place and Time
Mystery (Problem to Be Solved)
Clues
Solution to Mystery

Who was Jake?

How do you know?

Name _____

Instructions: Use the words in the boxes to complete the paragraphs.

our	new	one
hour	knew	won

My class took a trip to Mesa Verde National Park. It was _____ first field trip of the year. All of us were very excited. We _____ that we were in for an adventure unlike any we'd ever had.

We waited an _____ for the bus to arrive at school. We didn't mind because we were playing a _____ game Mr. Rhodes had created. It was pretty cool because everyone _____. How's that for a fun game?

When we got on the bus, Mr. Rhodes gave us each a number. My friend Ricky was number _____. I was number twenty-seven. We were supposed to say the number each time Mr. Rhodes took a head count. I think Mr. Rhodes was trying to keep track of me. He must have thought I might sneak off to solve a mystery.

It was a long ride to Cliff Palace, that lasted a little over one _____. _____ bus driver made the trip really interesting. She _____ so much about the Anasazi and the way they lived. We were so quiet you could have heard a pin drop.

When we arrived at Cliff Palace, we met _____ tour guide, Ranger John. He said the tour would last an _____. He explained that the Anasazi had grown corn, beans, and squash for their food. Ranger John took us inside the kiva. There he told us about the holes in the floor. The large _____ was the fire pit. The other _____ was a small hole that led to the spirit world. Hmmm . . . I think there might be a _____ mystery to solve here!