Elizabeth Blackwell's Early Life

elizabeth blackwell was born in a house on dickson street in bristol, england, on february 3, 1821. blackwell's earliest, happy memories, though, were of her time living at a house on 1 wilson street, off portland square, in bristol, england. In 1828, elizabeth's father, samuel, moved his large family to nelson street, next to his sugar factory. But when the city became unsafe to live in, samuel decided to move his family to america. The blackwells sailed to new york city on a ship called the cosmo in august of 1832. samuel set up a new sugar factory, but in 1838 that factory burned down in a fire. This caused hard times for the family, and they moved to cincinnati, ohio, in 1838. But only three weeks after their move to cincinnati, elizabeth's father died unexpectedly from a fever.
