

Name _____

Instructions: If a cause is listed for an event, write the effect. If an effect is listed, write the cause.

Cause	Effect
1. The prince admired Chinzaemon.
2.	The prince fired the sleeping guards.
3. The prince smiled when he thanked Chinzaemon for causing him to fire the worthless guards.
4.	Chinzaemon was allowed to sniff the prince's ear whenever he wanted to.
5.	Chinzaemon became a very wealthy man.
6.	The prince fired his advisors.
7. The prince fired his advisors.

Name _____

Instructions: The sentences contain a compound predicate. On the lines below each sentence, write two sentences using the same subject. The first one is done for you.

1. Chinzaemon ran over and sniffed in the prince's ear.

Chinzaemon ran over.

Chinzaemon sniffed in the prince's ear.

2. He then told the head guard and persuaded him to sound the alarm.

3. And everyone brought their wives and dressed in their finest clothing.

4. The prince would consider the requests and do his best to satisfy those he felt were worthy.

5. Chinzaemon just smiled and accepted their offerings.

Name _____

Instructions: Read the sentences below. Then add -ly to the underlined words to create an adverb.
Use each adverb you make in a new sentence.

Adjective

Adverb

- | | |
|---|-------|
| 1. The boy's homework was very neat . | _____ |
| 2. The sky is so clear and blue today. | _____ |
| 3. We heard a loud noise coming from the house. | _____ |
| 4. I want to replace my slow car with a fast car. | _____ |
| 5. The bear asked the wise owl why the moon shines at night. | _____ |
| 6. You have been very kind to my friend. | _____ |
| 7. Is your pillow soft enough? | _____ |

New Sentences

- | | |
|----------|--|
| 1. _____ | |
| _____ | |
| 2. _____ | |
| _____ | |
| 3. _____ | |
| _____ | |
| 4. _____ | |
| _____ | |
| 5. _____ | |
| _____ | |
| 6. _____ | |
| _____ | |
| 7. _____ | |
| _____ | |