

Name _____

Instructions: On the line after each statement, write an O if the statement is an opinion.
Write an F if it is a fact.

1 Wild horses are untamed horses that run free in herds.

2 The stallion is the mate of several female horses, or mares, who stay with the herd.

3 It is so sad that a foal leaves to join a new herd when it's only a few years old.

4 Spanish explorers are responsible for bringing horses across the Atlantic Ocean five hundred years ago.

5 Mares have a harder job than stallions in the herd.

6 Some people think wild horses are pests because there are too many of them.

7 The country protects wild horses with special laws and horse sanctuaries.

8 Wild horse herds thundering across the West is a beautiful sight.

Name _____

Instructions: Unscramble each word that contains the vowel digraph ai, write it on the line, and draw a line to the correct picture.

① ials _____

② ydasi _____

③ riha _____

④ criha _____

⑤ alin _____

⑥ lpia _____

⑦ ilja _____

⑧ napti _____

Name _____

Instructions: Read each sentence and underline the past-tense verb(s). Rewrite the sentence using the present-tense form of the verb(s) on the line provided.

① Wild horses roamed across the American West in herds.

② Each herd stayed together to raise the young horses.

③ People depended on tame horses and started to think of wild horses as pests.

Name _____

Instructions: Read each sentence and underline the past-tense verb(s). Rewrite the sentence using the present-tense form of the verb(s) on the line provided.

④ Laws protected the horses from human harm.

⑤ Some people adopted wild horses, and others created horse sanctuaries for abandoned horses.

⑥ Many people worked together to ensure wild horses always ran free.

