

Name _____

What I predict will happen

Changes in my prediction

What actually happened

Instructions: Before reading the book, have students fill in the first row with their prediction. During reading, have them stop to write their revised prediction in the middle row. When finished reading, have students write what actually happened in the final row.

Name _____

Causes

Effects

Instructions: Have students write causes from the story in the left-hand boxes and their effects in the right-hand boxes.

Name _____

① What kind of news did Arthur receive

② There will be some more noise in Arthur's house now

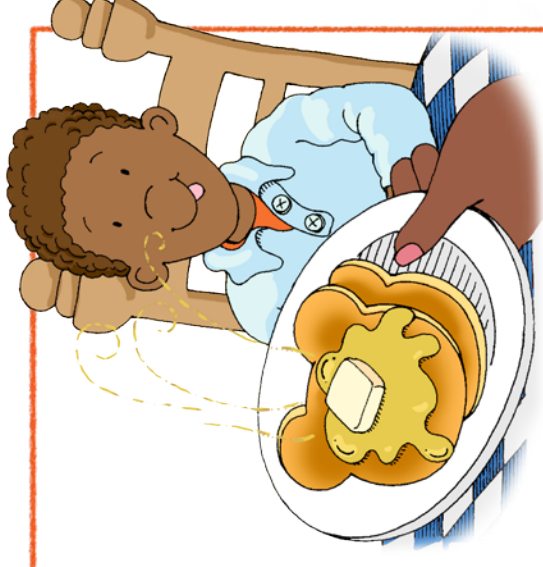

③ Arthur's sister grabbed his finger

④ Which of Arthur's friends got a new sister

⑤ Who lives in Arthur's home with him

Write the sentence below as a question:

Arthur likes to eat pancakes.

Instructions: Have students read each sentence and decide whether it is declarative (telling) or interrogative (asking). Have them place either a period or a question mark to end each sentence correctly. Have them circle the question word for each sentence they end with a question mark. Then, have students change each declarative sentence to an interrogative sentence. Finally, at the bottom of the page, students should rewrite the given sentence as a question.