

Name _____

Instructions: Find a cause-and-effect relationship from each section in the book and record it in the appropriate box below. Remember to record the cause first and then the effect. Notice that two sections—"Making Food" and "Fall"—have three boxes. For these sections, record a cause, an effect, and then a second effect that follows from the first effect.

Summer

Winter and Spring

Making Food

Fall

Why Do Leaves Change Color? • Level M • 1

Skill: Cause and Effect

Name _____

Instructions: Circle the preposition in each sentence below. Then, write on the line whether the preposition tells where, when, or with what.

1 I see leaves on the trees. _____

2 The other colors are under the green of the leaf. _____

3 Trees store food before winter comes. _____

4 The girls sit near the tree's base. _____

5 A tree raises its branches above the earth. _____

6 The red leaf falls between the brown and yellow ones. _____

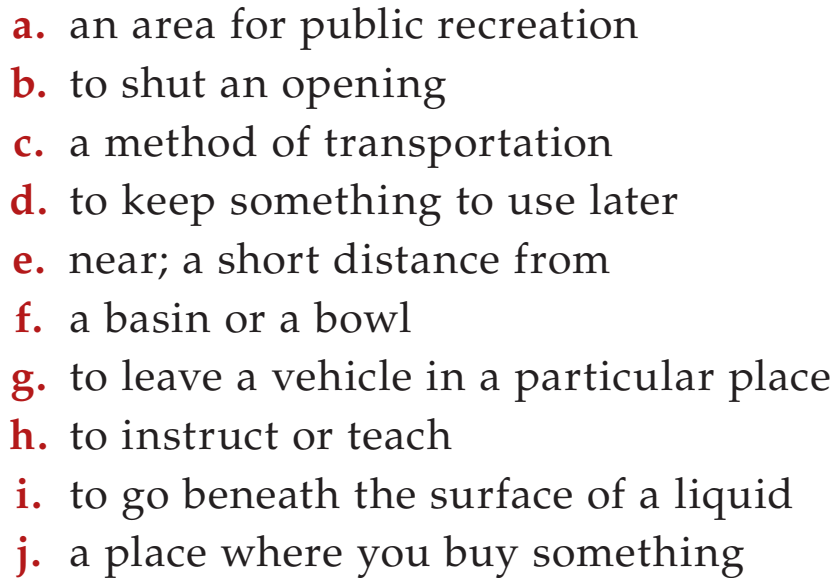

7 Photosynthesis works with sunlight to make food. _____

8 New leaves grow after spring arrives. _____

Name _____

Instructions: Choose the correct homograph meaning for the underlined words. Write the letter on the line.

-
- a. an area for public recreation
 - b. to shut an opening
 - c. a method of transportation
 - d. to keep something to use later
 - e. near; a short distance from
 - f. a basin or a bowl
 - g. to leave a vehicle in a particular place
 - h. to instruct or teach
 - i. to go beneath the surface of a liquid
 - j. a place where you buy something

- 1 Leaves store food for the winter. ____
- 2 I went to the store to buy milk and bread. ____
- 3 Wash your hands in the bathroom sink. ____
- 4 The rocks sink deep into the water. ____
- 5 The boys want to train their puppy to shake. ____
- 6 A family rides the train from one city to the other. ____
- 7 We park our car in the garage. ____
- 8 The children want to play at the neighborhood park. ____
- 9 Close your eyes when the show is scary. ____
- 10 That ball was close to hitting our house! ____