Instructions: Write the story beginning, events, climax, resolution, and ending in the correct spaces on the diagram.

The diagram consists of five rectangular boxes arranged in a sequence. The boxes are labeled 'Beginning', 'Event', 'Climax', 'Resolution', and 'Ending'. Arrows indicate the flow of the story: from 'Beginning' to 'Event', from 'Event' to 'Climax', from 'Climax' to 'Resolution', and from 'Resolution' to 'Ending'. Each box contains several horizontal lines for writing.
