

Name _____

Instructions: Write causes and effects from the book in the correct sequence in the boxes below to show how one event impacts another.

Cause

Effect

Cause

Effect

Cause

Effect

Name _____

Instructions: Circle the conjunctions in the sentences below. Then, write your own sentence about the Revolutionary War using a conjunction.

- ① The two countries had competed for hundreds of years to gain power in the Old World, and that competition continued in the New World.
- ② The French captured Fort Necessity in the summer of 1764, but Washington and his men surrendered and then escaped.
- ③ Just a decade later, gratitude and friendship turned to distrust and revolution.
- ④ Taxes were not new to the colonists, but the British government was changing how the taxes were applied and enforced.
- ⑤ Some of the Patriots formed groups called the Sons of Liberty and the Daughters of Liberty and urged colonists to refuse to trade with Britain or buy British goods.
- ⑥ Colonists resented the soldiers, but for years they managed to live side by side.
- ⑦ The colonists were still not represented in Parliament, and they were angry that not all of the taxes were repealed.
- ⑧ In the meantime, Britain appointed General Thomas Gage as governor of Massachusetts and sent him to Boston to take control of the city.
- ⑨ American colonists were preparing to fight for independence from a country that many no longer believed in or trusted.
- ⑩ The British soldiers tried to walk past the militiamen, but an unordered shot rang out.

My Sentence:

Name _____

Instructions: Use a thesaurus to choose a synonym for each word. Write the synonym in the box labeled Synonym. Then, use each synonym in a sentence about the American Revolution, and write it in the box labeled Sentence.

Word	Synonym	Sentence fought develop protect critical grateful peaceful participate urged		