

Name _____

Instructions: Complete each missing problem or solution in the spaces provided.

Problem	Solution
A baby bird is alone above the kiln.
The baby bird’s mother does not come back.
	Christine places Chick-a-Dude in the aquarium and puts it on a high shelf.
Christine is not sure what a baby bird should eat.
	Chick-A-Dude is given to the Wildlife Rescue Center.

Chick-A-Dude • Level U • 1

Skill: Problem and Solution

Name _____

Instructions: Read each sentence below and circle where the dash or dashes should be placed. On the line below each sentence, explain how the dash is used (to show an afterthought or to emphasize).

- ① Hundreds of species of injured or orphaned wildlife mammals, birds, and reptiles come through these doors.

- ② He'd be fed every 30 minutes by hand food and vitamins.

- ③ Everyone enjoyed the fluffy chick everyone, that is, except Misty.

- ④ Mrs. Brice cleared a high shelf in the kitchen for the chick's aquarium safe from their Labrador retriever Misty.

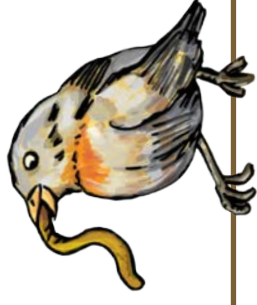

- ⑤ Misty slowly headed to the box ears perked, tail stiff, hair up.

- ⑥ Misty's nose twitched as rapidly as a hummingbird's wings furiously sniffing the chick she couldn't see.

Name _____

Instructions: Write the words in alphabetical order on the lines provided.

Rick	barking	chick	box	Christine
bird	chirp	kiln	bark	robin

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____