

Name _____

Instructions: After reading Aesop's Fables, choose five fables and complete the chart with the character(s) and the lessons the character(s) learned in each story.

Character(s)

What lesson did the character(s) learn?

Name _____

Instructions: Place quotation marks in the correct places in each sentence. Then, write three sentences of your own that use quotation marks.

- ① No doubt you sing as beautifully as you fly, said the fox.
- ② The goddess of animals explained, The feathers on your neck shine with every color of the rainbow, and your tail looks like it is covered in gems.
- ③ Look at all this food! exclaimed the astonished country mouse. You must eat very well.
- ④ There is a cat that guards the pantry, and she is always on the prowl for mice, whispered the city mouse.
- ⑤ Can you see just how special you are? the goddess of animals replied.

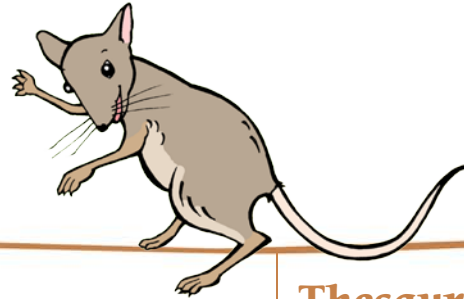

My Sentences:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Name _____

Instructions: Choose an antonym for each word from the box at the bottom of the page. Then, write the antonym in the Antonym column. Put a check mark in the Thesaurus column across from each word after you check your answers in a thesaurus.

birth absent chilly doubt east fail alone after

Word	Antonym	Thesaurus
west		<input type="checkbox"/>
before		<input type="checkbox"/>
death		<input type="checkbox"/>
warm		<input type="checkbox"/>
trust		<input type="checkbox"/>
pass		<input type="checkbox"/> present		<input type="checkbox"/>
together		<input type="checkbox"/>