

Name _____

Author's Purpose for A Monument for George:

to entertain

to inform to persuade

A Monument for George • Level I • 1

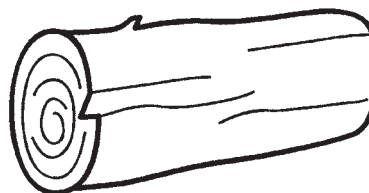

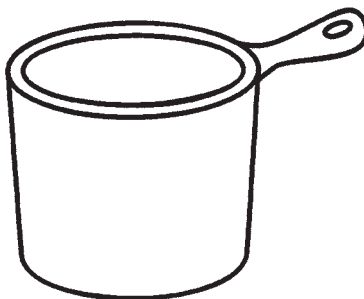

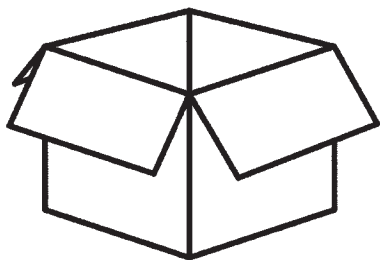

Skill: Author's Purpose

Instructions: Have students choose and circle the author's purpose. Then, have students write or draw four examples that show the author's purpose from the book in the boxes provided.

Name _____

hot dog

Instructions: Have students write the words that contain the short /o/ sound. Then, have students color the pictures of the words that rhyme.

Name _____

- ① People started working on the Washington Monument in 1848. _____
- ② The work was stopped by a war in the United States. _____
- ③ A statue of George Washington was placed in the monument. _____
- ④ People wanted the monument to be built. _____
- ⑤ An earthquake damaged the monument in 2011. _____
- ⑥ Workers repaired the monument over three years. _____

My Sentence:

Instructions: Have students write the past-tense verb in each sentence on the line below it. Then, have students write an original sentence about the story using one of the verbs on the line provided.