

Name _____

The authors' purpose for writing this book is to:

Not Enough Snow • Level E • 1

Examples:

① _____

② _____

③ _____

Skill: Author's Purpose

Instructions: Have students identify the author's purpose at the top of the page. Then, have students choose three examples from the book to support their answer.

Name _____

① He is not happy staying inside.

② We do not want to shovel snow.

③ They are not playing in the snow.

④ Where is all the snow?

⑤ We will be happy when it snows.

⑥ Dad will not let him play until he shovels the snow.

My Sentence:

Instructions: Have students make a contraction from each pair of underlined words. Then, have students write an original sentence using one of the contractions.

Name _____

1	2	3	4
5	6	7	8

Not Enough Snow • Level E • 3

enough	plans	ruined	snow
winter	don't	have	not

Skill: Alphabetical Order

Instructions: Have students cut out the eight words at the bottom of the page and glue them in alphabetical order at the top of the page. Then, have students choose three words and use them in original sentences on the back of this page.