Bees are little,
but they do a big job.
Bees feed you and me.

Without bees, we would not have apples.

Without bees, we would not have carrots.

Without bees, we would not have lemons.

Without bees, we would not have cucumbers.

Without bees, we would not have blueberries.

Without bees, we would not have pumpkins.

Bees help bring us some of our favorite foods.
Thank you, bees!

The background of the entire page is a close-up photograph of a wooden surface, likely a beehive. Several bees are visible: one on the left, one on the right, one at the bottom left, and one at the bottom center. The wood is a warm, yellowish-brown color with some darker spots and grain patterns.
