

Name _____

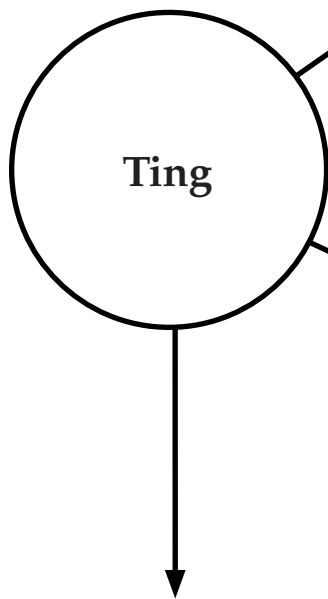

Instructions: Write three of Ting's character traits, or qualities, on the top of each box. For each trait, list two examples from the book where Ting shows that trait.

Character Trait:

Example:

1. _____

2. _____

Character Trait:

Example:

1. _____

2. _____

Character Trait:

Example:

1. _____

2. _____

Name _____

Instructions: Circle the conjunction in each compound sentence below. Then, identify and write the two sentences within the compound sentence. At the bottom of the page, write your own compound sentence using a comma and a conjunction.

① Shanghai is the biggest city in China, and it is both modern and very old.

② I love my new country, but I still miss my friends and the foods I loved to eat.

③ Some of the other kids are mean to me, so I ignore them and walk away.

④ I enjoy playing with my friends, but I often feel very lonely.

⑤ English is hard, and sometimes it just doesn't make sense.

⑥ There wasn't even a bush in sight, so for a moment I thought Ms. Brickle had gone crazy.

Write a compound sentence:

Name _____

Instructions: Find the idioms in the book. Write the idioms on the worksheet and use your own words to explain what each one means. At the bottom of the page, write two other idioms you have heard that are not in the book.

| | Idiom | Meaning |
|---|-------|---------|
| 1 | | |
| 2 | | |
| 3 | | |
| 4 | | |
| 5 | | |

Idioms:

1. _____
2. _____