

Name _____

Instructions: Write four details from the book in the provided boxes. Then, determine the author's purpose, as reflected in the details, and circle the appropriate word at the top.

Author's Purpose

to entertain

to inform to persuade

Name _____

Instructions: Use the conjunctions and, but, and or to combine the sentence pairs below into one complete sentence.

① There are now more than fifty national parks in the United States. There are many more around the world.

② Bison are giant animals. They have a hump on their back.

③ People pushed wolves out of Yellowstone. They were brought back.

④ Imagine a place with strange green pools. A place with gurgling pots of mud that smell like rotten eggs.

⑤ Do you want to visit Old Faithful? Do you want take a hike?

⑥ The hot spot has created hot pools of mud. It also made colorful hot springs.

Name _____

Instructions: Look through Yellowstone: A Place of Wild Wonders to find eight adjectives, or describing words. Write a synonym for each adjective in the second column. At the bottom of the page, choose one synonym and use it in a complete sentence.

Adjective		Synonym

My Sentence:
