

Name _____

Cause	Effect

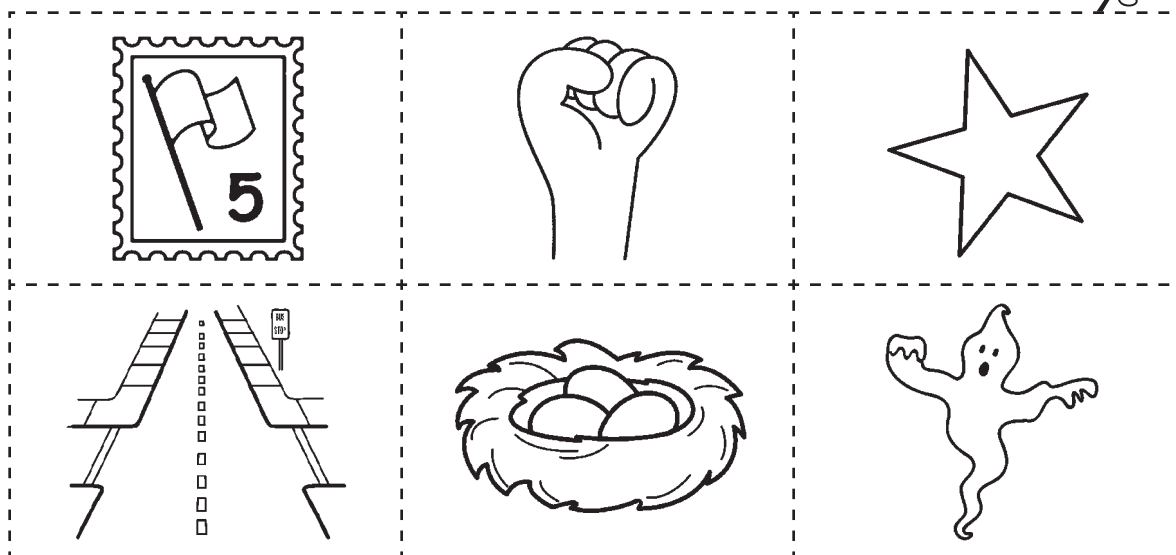

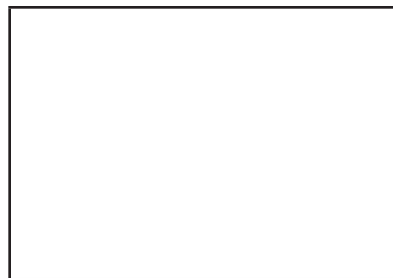

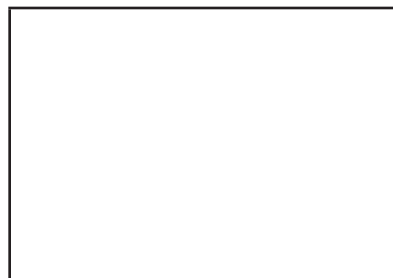

Instructions: Have students draw or write causes in the left boxes and their effects in the right boxes.

Name _____

story

most st

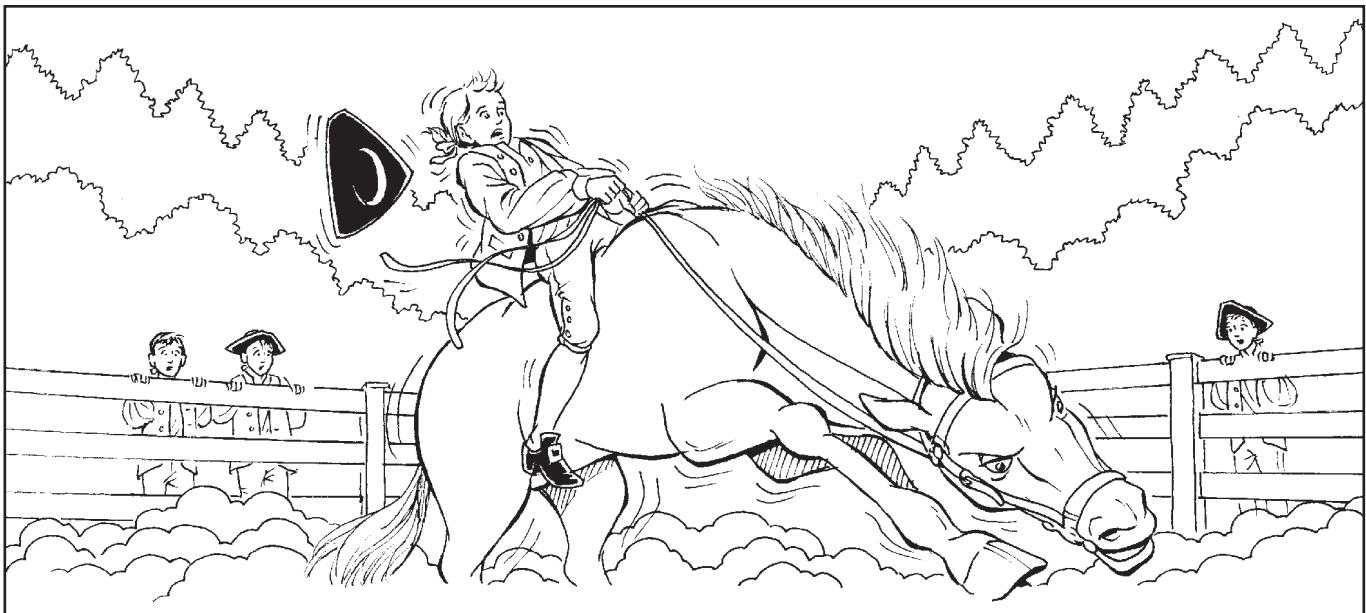

Instructions: Name each picture aloud with students. Have them place the picture in the correct column to indicate if the word begins or ends with the st-blend.

Name _____

George Washington was the first president of the United States of America He was a very honest man As a young boy, he always told the truth to his parents George became president because people trusted him and he worked very hard His picture is on the United States dollar bill There are many stories about the life of George Washington

Write your own sentences about George Washington.

Instructions: Read the above paragraph aloud with students. Have students add periods to the sentences where appropriate. Ask students to write their own sentences about George Washington using correct punctuation.