

Name _____

Instructions: Read the information in the chart. Use the text to fill in the missing cause or effect. Then find one cause and effect from the text on your own.

Cause	Effect
	Daniel Boone went to live in the woods.
	Daniel Boone's family started to worry about him and sent out a search party.
	Daniel wanted to live in Kentucky.
The fort ran out of salt, so Daniel went looking for some.

Name _____

Instructions: Read the sentences below. Circle the subject and underline the predicate in each sentence. Then write a sentence of your own in the box at the bottom of the page. Circle the subject and underline the predicate in your sentence.

1. The boy rode his bike down the street.
2. Amy and Sam went outside to play.
3. The cat went to sleep on my lap.
4. My grandma makes the best apple pies.
5. Her aunt and uncle visit a different state each summer.
6. I found my baseball under my bed.
7. The store had a big sale.
8. Barton Lake is my favorite place to go swimming.

My Sentence:

Name _____

Instructions: Write a new word on each line that means the same as the two words beside it. Use the prefix dis-, re-, or un-.

1. not agree _____

2. fill again _____

3. play again _____

4. not lock _____

5. not comfortable _____

6. not honest _____

7. cover again _____

8. build again _____