

Name _____

Instructions: Label one circle Canadian Thanksgiving and one circle United States Thanksgiving. Where the circles overlap, list things that are the same about the two holidays. Write things that are different about the two holidays where the circles are separate. In the spaces below, write a sentence naming one way the holidays are the same and one way the holidays are different.

Same: _____

Different: _____

Name _____

Instructions: Work with a partner to locate all the words in the story that have an r-controlled vowel. Record the words in the correct column.

ar	er	ir	or	ur

TWO THANKSGIVINGS • LEVEL L • 2

SKILL: R-CONTROLLED VOWELS

Name _____

Instructions: Have students add the quotation marks to each sentence. Then have them write one original sentence about Thanksgiving that uses dialogue.

- ① Thanksgiving is in November in the United States, Mom said.
- ② Why is Thanksgiving celebrated in October in Canada?
replied Curtis.
- ③ Canada is copying the United States! Curtis exclaimed.
- ④ We probably gave you our holiday, too! Curtis blurted out.
- ⑤ The Spanish settlers celebrated Thanksgiving
before Canada and the United States, said Uncle Ed.

My Sentence:

