Instructions: Read the sentences below and circle the parentheses. Next, on the line below each sentence, write whether the parentheses were added to clarify or to add more information.

- ① The flu is also called influenza (in-floo-EN-zah).

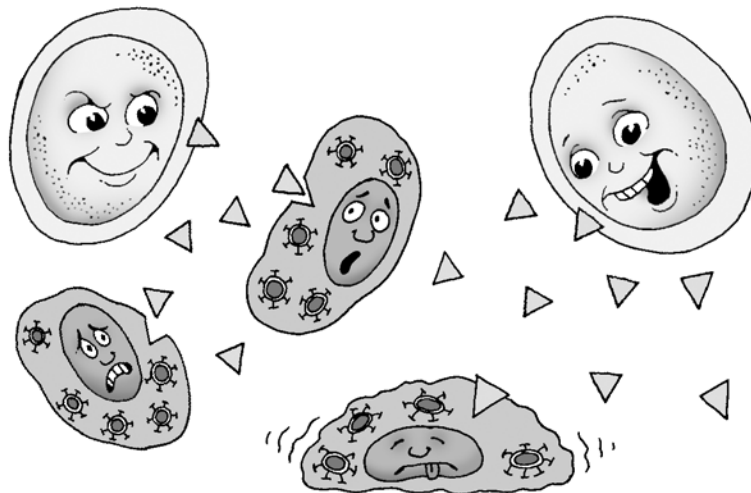

- ② Influenza B is milder, causes smaller outbreaks, and affects only humans (mostly children).

- ③ Wild birds (above) often pass viruses to farm chickens (right) that are around people more.

- ④ The pandemic (the rapid, worldwide spread of disease) of 1918 was not the only major influenza outbreak in history.

- ⑤ Sometimes a virus will take a shortcut (such as the avian virus of 1997) and jump directly from animals to humans.

- ⑥ During flu season (October through May in the northern hemisphere), viruses are widespread.
