

Name _____

Instructions: Fill in the boxes below with cause-and-effect relationships you have identified from the story.

Cause

---

---

---

---

Effect

---

---

---

---

Cause

---

---

---

---

Effect

---

---

---

---

Cause

---

---

---

---

Effect

---

---

---

---

Cause

---

---

---

---

Effect

---

---

---

---

Name _____

Instructions: Record any connections to prior knowledge you made as you read Tanya's Money Problem.

Text-to-Self	Text-to-Text	Text-to-Word

TANYA'S MONEY PROBLEM • LEVEL U • 2

SKILL: CONNECT TO PRIOR KNOWLEDGE

Name _____

Instructions: Each sentence in the left column contains an idiom. Underline the idiom in each sentence. Then draw a line to match each idiom on the left with its explanation on the right.

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1. You took the words right out of my mouth. | • This is a really heavy rainstorm.               |
| 2. I felt like a fish out of water.          | • That was so easy.                               |
| 3. It's raining cats and dogs.               | • You have made some bad choices.                 |
| 4. That was a piece of cake.                 | • I felt out of place, as though I didn't belong. |
| 5. You have dug yourself into a deep hole.   | • Somehow you knew what I was going to say.       |
| 6. I have a frog in my throat.               | • You need to change your behavior.               |
| 7. Boy, are we in a pickle.                  | • We're in so much trouble.                       |
| 8. It's time you turned over a new leaf.     | • My voice is scratchy.                           |

