Instructions: Choose three examples that show the author's purpose(s) for writing this book. For each one, check the box that tells the author's purpose. Then, write supporting text evidence in the middle box. Finally, explain how you know that the evidence supports the purpose.

Author's Purpose	/ Text Evidence	How Do You Know?
☐ To Inform ☐ To Entertain	Page:
☐ To Persuade
/ 1	Page:	/ /
☐ To Inform
☐ To Entertain
☐ To Persuade
	Page:
☐ To Inform		-
☐ To Entertain
☐ To Persuade

Instructions: Read the sentences below. Circle all of the adjectives and underline the nouns or pronouns that they describe. Then, write your own sentence about the Holocaust using at least one adjective.

- 1 Vera Gissing was a young Jewish girl who awoke to the sounds of tanks and German soldiers marching through Prague's streets.
- ② "I'll never forget the anguished expressions on my parents' faces that morning," said Gissing.
- 3 An emotional speaker who could excite a crowd, Hitler became a popular leader.
- 4 Winton went into the camps and saw that they were cold, dirty, and jammed with thousands of people.
- (5) Some aid groups were trying to help Jews find new homes, but Winton noticed that the focus was on old or sick people.
- 6 Winton's plan was to find safe homes for the children with families outside of Czechoslovakia.
- At fifty pounds per child, such a fee back then was a small fortune.
- (8) When the governments moved too slowly, sometimes Winton and a small team of helpers created fake permits.

My Sentence:

Name

Instructions: Write what you know or think each vocabulary word means. Then, write whether or not your prediction was correct and write the revised meaning of the word if needed.

Vocabulary Prediction Chart >

\. /
	No.

Word	Predicted Meaning	Meaning Correct?	Revised Meaning
Holocaust
anguished generation Hebrew inferior keepsakes perished spirited atrocious			