Skill: Story Elements

Instructions: Authors often use similes (comparing one thing to another) to help readers create more vivid mental images. Draw a sketch for each simile in the story. Then write and draw your own simile on the back of this worksheet. Remember to use the words like or as.

Similes	Visualization (picture in your mind)
Her eyes shined like jewels.
Brom Bones's face turned as red as a boiled lobster.
He was as massive as a bull and as mean as a bear.
